Meet Sulack

> Welcome to TechGarage.ca! I'm Sulack, a tech enthusiast, content creator, and the driving force behind this platform. Here's a little bit about me and what you can expect to find here.

Who is Sulack?

> I'm a dedicated individual with a passion for technology, gaming, and creating engaging content. With years of experience in the tech and gaming industries, I aim to share my knowledge, skills, and insights with a broader audience. My journey has led me to develop various projects and communities that reflect my love for all things tech.

My Projects

ScrubClub Media

I run a YouTube channel named ScrubClub Media, where I focus on providing Overwatch gameplay, strategies, and community content. My goal is to immerse viewers in the ultimate Overwatch experience with weekly battles, top plays, and more.

ScrubCraft

ScrubCraft is a Minecraft server project built on the TechGarage platform. It's a cluster of various Minecraft servers, with the ScrubCraft SMP as the main one. You can join us at Scrubcraft.ca and explore our world.

TechGarage

TechGarage is my latest venture, designed to be a comprehensive source for all things home-tech. Here, you can find:

- Media Guides: Tutorials and guides to help you navigate the world of media creation.
- Consultation: Personalized advice for your tech projects.
- Hosting: Reliable hosting services for your websites and applications.
- Tech Support: Support for all your tech-related issues.
- Expanding Services: As TechGarage grows, so will the services we offer. Stay tuned!

Community

I believe in the power of community and strive to create spaces where tech enthusiasts and gamers can come together. My ScrubClub Discord server is one such space, offering a friendly environment for discussions, collaborations, and more.

Join us at ScrubClub Discord.
